Everything I hoped it would be

Since I was unable to make it to my grandmother's 90th birthday, I wanted to do something unforgettable for her. Together with my sister, I hired Matt Snow, The Cincinnati Sinatra, to come to her nursing home and serenade her and all the other residents. Though I wasn't able to attend, I got a full report from my mother and brother—including videos!—and I couldn't have been more delighted.

Matt was very communicative with me beforehand, and prompt, professional, and courteous during the actual event. The tux was a great touch! My grandmother was more thrilled than I can ever remember her being, and my mom said it was a marvelous performance that had many singing along. I would wholeheartedly recommend Matt for anyone looking for a great singer of the crooner classics
