Matt Snow, "The Cincinnati Sinatra", Delivers!

For our daughter and son-in-law's wedding reception, we hired Matt Snow as our "Wedding Entertainment Director." This decision was one of the best we made. We found Matt to be the same personable individual whether entertaining our guests or planning the event with our family. Excited with our daughter's vision for her reception Matt laid the groundwork for what would turn out to be a spectacular evening of entertainment, food, fun and memories. We were impressed with his expertise and attention to detail covering every aspect of the reception. Our planning meetings were pleasurable and very productive. We especially enjoyed bouncing ideas off each other while his recommendations helped turn our daughter's vision into reality.

As our guests arrived, Matt greeted them warmly with the same charming smile to which we had become so accustomed. He continued to remain focused on our guests throughout the evening pleasing the crowd with a variety of Sinatra classics, a mix of popular standards and Christmas favorites. He moved throughout the room from table to table including each guest in his performance.

Matt effortlessly transformed from crooner to DJ, immediately filling the dance floor with the big band classic "Jump Jive an' Wail." He kept the crowd on their feet with a great mix of tunes and wedding reception staples. Matt, just as with his singing performance, continued to interact with the guests on the dance floor.

As Master of Ceremonies Matt kept the evening moving, ensuring that the presentation of each planned wedding ritual was in accordance to the timeline. Introductions were professional with the pronunciation of each name done correctly. Except for an earlier than planned arrival of our guests, if Matt had to adapt to any unforeseen problems during the evening it was not apparent to our guests or me. I received numerous comments on how flawless the evening went.

Matt was prompt having his equipment set up, ready to perform when scheduled, even for the aforementioned early arrivals. His attire and demeanor were no less than professional. Matt's performance was of show business quality and truly added something distinctive to the reception. We left much of the song selection to Matt, and our guests were not disappointed. His singing was fabulous, on key, on the beat, mirroring Sinatra's timing and mannerisms to perfection. The volume levels were always in accordance with what was required. Guests were able to have conversations without having to shout over the music.

I would be amiss if I did not mention Matt's wife Patti and her contribution. While Matt performed, Patti ran the floor coordinating the reception hall staff and preparing the bride and groom as well as the rest of the supporting cast for our roles in this once-in-a-lifetime epic production.

Weeks after the reception, my wife and I were still receiving complements on both the reception and Matt. Matt and Patti worked well with all involved giving us a wonderful experience. He is a man of high integrity delivering on all aspects of our agreement. For all he brought to the reception, and exceeding our expectations, he is an exceptional value and I would highly recommend him to anyone. Matt is extremely versatile and he would enhance any event. Should the occasion arise, I would unquestionably hire Matt again.
