An absolute hit for my grandma's 80th birthday party!

Matt Snow is first class. I would hire him again in a second. From the first moment I spoke to him regarding my grandmother's surprise party, I knew that he was a true professional. He helped me plan out the flow of the party with details I wouldn't have thought of on my own. He was organized and prompt which our family appreciated. He looked "cool". What a superb entertainer. The guests LOVED him. He really worked the crowd by walking around and welcoming people to sing with him. Matt impresses the youngest guests (2 yrs old) to the 80+ group! Everyone enjoyed him. His voice is amazing. My favorite part of the night was watching my grandmother sitting by herself right in front of Matt just enjoying his singing. It was like she was back in time with my grandpa watching Frank in concert. Now, a few months later, she is still talking about how much she appreciated me hiring him. He is worth every penny! What an amazing performer.
