An Amazing Show for an 80th Birthday Party

Matt and Patti put on an amazing show for my Grandpa's 80th Birthday! Matt was great about contacting me immediately once I sent him a message on gigsalad. He instantly offered up a great show plan for us. I have never used an impersonator before so I was expecting him to dress and sing a few songs but was I blown away. He had a great idea to surprise our whole group and then entertained us the whole night with his engaging performance. He interacted with the crowd and would constantly be in contact with me to make sure everything was ok. He was terrific about keeping to his show plan while adapting to special requests. I was amazed of the price for the show for both Frank and Marilyn, for less than the price of dinner for the group we were able to book 3 hours of entertainment. I would recommend Matt Snow 100% and plan to use him again for other future events. My whole family had nothing but outstanding comments to give me during and after the event. I feel like its a memory our family will never forget. Thank you again so much Matt and Patti.
