Dear Matt,

I'm sorry it has taken so long to get this thank you note to you. It seems one holiday ran into another. Between work, travel and our family, time just moved along at too fast a pace.

Len and I do want to formally thank you for your terrific performance and all that you did to make his 70th Surprise Birthday Celebration an amazing, fun and heart-warming event. I've been told it was like you were part of the family with your greeting of guests as they arrived at the Iron Horse Inn. All was as you promised with jazz playing in the background and conversation with the guests preparing them for the arrival of Len and his family. It was, as I wished, a surprise my husband will never forget.

Thank you too for assisting our daughter and her husband as they tried to connect to your sound system at the last minute. As it turned out, everyone could hear and see the video presentation the children had prepared for their dad. You just worked on your feet, dealing with whatever was requested. Something unexpected? No matter, you worked things right into your performance.

Speaking of..... "The Cincinnati Sinatra!" Everyone loved your performance. I felt like I was in Vegas. Lenny was surprised and thrilled that you sounded and gestured so much like Frank himself. I loved the way you worked the crowd. Our guests couldn't stop talking about you. You created a perfect atmosphere for our friends and family of all ages.

What I appreciated the most, Matt, was that I never felt concerned about imposing on you, running over a time limit or costing unexpected, extra fees. You gave us the whole, wonderful evening for a more than fair fee. You have a very generous heart.

We just returned from working a Furniture Market in Vegas. Whenever we heard Sinatra music, it renewed memories and conversation about my Lenny's unforgettable birthday party.

Len and I wish you the best and continued success as "The Cincinnati Sinatra." If we ever have the opportunity to recommend entertainment for a very special event, you can be sure you will be the one we will happily and confidently suggest. We hope to see you again at your performances around the city. God Bless.

Sincerely,

Peggy Kemmerer
