Just a small verbalization from what is a complete consensus. I thought you'd enjoy this compliment.

Steve,

I have verbalized it but want to say again, thank you. We were gifted with the most elegant and glamorous soiree of which I'm sure would rival Pearl Mesta. To call it an office party is a tremendous understatement. The decorations, beautiful table settings, outstanding food, the musicians who were wonderful. The leader and singer was extremely good. I noticed while he kept everything flowing and looking effortless he was often checking his watch to keep it on time.

They say the right mix of guests make or break a party. If that's true we were spot on. Maybe icing on your cake. You're the "Host With the Most", but let's give credit also to the silent wind beneath your wings, Lisa.

Love you guys, Jimi
